

Title : Some topics of Current Interest in QCD Spin Physics

Abstract :

In this talk we will discuss some recent advances towards understanding the spin structure of the nucleon. Mostly we will concentrate on the generalized parton distributions, which are off-forward parton distributions, measured in deeply virtual Compton scattering, and single spin asymmetries and their present understanding in terms of intrinsic transverse momentum dependent distribution and fragmentation functions.